

SIMPLIFY & OPTIMIZE TRIAL SUPPLY MANAGEMENT

Harness the efficiency and savings of RTSM. Discover a quick-to-build, flexible RTSM solution that you can rely on, even for the most complex studies.

RAPID DEPLOYMENT

Meet your study start-up commitments with our build time of 4-6 weeks or less.

UNIFIED PLATFORM

Use RTSM only, or as part of a single, unified platform alongside EDC/DDC and eCOA.

FLEXIBILITY

Manage simple to complex study designs and supply chains with ease.

Why choose Signant SmartSignals® Unified Platform: RTSM?

- 01 Rapid setup tools help teams build studies in days, not weeks
- 02 Robust, reliable randomization capabilities to ensure trial integrity
- 03 Ensure medication is available at the right time for all patients at all sites, while maintaining study blinding, through efficient, demand-driven supply chain management
- 04 Reduce the costs associated with medication wastage and overage
- 05 Gain visibility and control of the end-to-end clinical trial supply chain
- 06 Accelerate workflows with depot and CMO integrations
- 07 Enable rapid and transparent emergency unblinding
- 08 Use alongside EDC/DDC and eCOA within our single unified platform, or use RTSM standalone

The RTSM module within our unified platform is backed by the leading scientific expertise of Signant Biotech. We ensure the right solution and best practice implementation are in place to reliably manage randomization, medication allocation, and the medication supply chain.

DELIVER ROBUST, RELIABLE RANDOMIZATION

- Maintain the statistical integrity of your trial with robust, reliable randomization including stratification
- Convenient and transparent emergency unblinding

SIMPLIFY & OPTIMIZE MEDICATION MANAGEMENT

- Flexible configuration means that the medication supply chain processes can be optimized, while maintaining rapid set-up times and meeting study start timelines
- Enable cost savings through reductions in medication overage and wastage
- Avoid partial unblinding pitfalls with our experienced implementation team
- Get real-time data in the hands of your supply teams to make accurate decisions quickly
- Simplify processes with depot and CMO integrations

ENJOY EXPERIENCED & ATTENTIVE PROJECT MANAGEMENT

- Our team shares customer timeline commitments
- We bring a proactive approach to guide customers requiring external resources and support
